MAGOR Multilingual Audio Gisting, Organization and Retrieval (MAGOR)

Project MAGOR is a multi-year project to strengthen the speech technology core competence by conducting application-oriented research. Specifically, we have focused on the audio mining of broadcast news as a platform to integrate the various areas of research such as: robust LVCSR, speaker diarization, speaker verification, conversational speech LVCSR, rich text integration and speech enhancement.

Figure 6: Screen Capture of Project Magor’s Broadcast news indexing and retrieval showing multilingual translation of speech caption.